WELCOME

HELLO

We are David and Peggy, two photographers who have worked together for over 20 years to create unique, passionate wedding day stories. Quite simply, we love love. We think there is no more romantic backdrop in the world to showcase your love than Jasper National Park. From awe-inspiring mountains and sparkling lakes to fairytale forests, we will capture your most remarkable milestone with all the natural beauty it deserves.

We look forward to being part of the best day of your life, and telling your love story from a different angle.
